

The Mid-Week Messenger
Jonesville United Methodist Church
April 11, 2018

“While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.” (Luke 24:41-43)

As Jesus appeared to his disciples, they were startled and terrified because they all thought that he was dead. They could not receive him with pure joy because it was so hard to believe that he was alive. On top of disbelief and wonder, they might have had their own guilt deep down in the hearts because they all abandoned him when he was crucified. Knowing that, Jesus asked for food and by eating it, he resolved their doubts and released their guilt and failure. It must have been such a grateful and powerful moment for all the disciples.

Come to Jonesville UMC and let us all join the moment that they had with Jesus.

LAST DAY to have your picture taken!

6am Prayer Service

The 6am prayer service held during the 40 days of Lent was so well liked, it is going to be continued. Starting this Tuesday, please join us in the Sanctuary at 6am for songs, scripture readings and prayer. These services will be held Monday through Saturday each week. It can put a whole new outlook on your day!

Green Up, Clean Up Day Sat. April 21 (9am-noon)

Come to help spruce up the flower gardens around the church and the parsonage. Or wash windows in the church. Bring your rake, tarp, shovel and garden gloves. Cleaning supplies will be available.

Imagine No Racism Event

April 21 (12:30 – 4pm) ~ Shenendehowa UMC

For Clergy and Laity

Imagine No Racism is a set of spiritual practices involving deep listening, new learning and authentic relationship building, beginning in the local church and reaching out into the community. Unite together Bishop Webb & his Taskforce and begin strategizing how you can work together to eliminate racism. The event will provide resources to begin its implementation.

Building Community: Because It Just Doesn't Happen

April 28 & May 5

Have you ever found yourself getting "sucked into" a job or a responsibility you really didn't want? Or, do you find that a particular someone can always find the right buttons to push and infuriate you? Would you like to learn how not to get sucked in or have your buttons pushed? This is a two-day workshop 9am-5pm, must attend both Saturdays. $10 fee for registration. Calvary UMC in Latham. To register contact Ray Stees: rstees@nycap.rr.com or call 518-406-5349.

5 Things Visitors are Thinking But Won't Ask

April 30 (10am-3pm) ~ South Glens Falls UMC

This seminar is a hands-on learning experience designed to help participants better connect and build lasting relationships with visitors in their church. Jason Moore is nationally-known author, speaker and worship coach. Admission is $5 which includes a catered lunch. Please contact Carrie Boyer for more information (518) 480-4866 or email adirondackdistrict@unyumc.org.

Electronic Recycling Day @ JUMC Sunday, May 6th

Bring your broken or outdated electronics to be recycled. FREE...except old style TVs/computer monitors (CRT). Look for the sign outside, put items in the truck.

SMILE!

Did you miss the chance to have your picture taken for JUMC's new photo directory? Here is good news for you! Two additional dates are available for you to have your picture taken. Our photographer, Brittany Fedorchak, will be set up in the back of Fellowship Hall.

Please sign up in advance, also in Fellowship Hall or call the Church Office.

April 15th 9:30-10:30 and 11:30-1:00

April 22nd 10:00-10:30 and 11:30-1:00

If you would prefer, you can submit your own photo electronically. The .jpg file will be cropped to a 2 ½ inch square. It must be named with the household name (taber.jpg). Attach it to an email and send to brittanyf.photography@gmail.com. Be sure to include your name(s), address, phone number, and email if desired. Do you have multiple phone numbers and emails? Please star one of each in case we can't include all of them in the directory. Photos must be submitted by April 22nd. Please contact Cindy Taber if you have any questions or concerns.
