

“But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.”
(Mark 3:27)

One of the purposes for which the apostles are sent out to the world is to cast out demons. (v.15) By the power of the Holy Spirit we come to repent our sins and start living our lives resisting evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they represent themselves. This is one of our baptismal covenants too. If there is any power that pushes away the evil/satanic spirit in whatever forms, that must not be the evil/satanic spirit itself, but the Holy Spirit. There are things that do not mix together. If one wins the other loses. They don’t win at the same time. If we deny the Holy Spirit, the other side wins. Which one do you push away and which one do you invite in?

Come to Jonesville UMC and be filled with the Holy Spirit!
