Jesus at the Lakeshore: Breakfast With Jesus

Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some. John 21:6

If you are feeling a bit of déjà vu, you're not alone. Two weeks ago, we had a similar verse in Luke. At that point, Jesus was calling the disciples to follow him. In John, Jesus is meeting the disciples after the resurrection and yet we have echoes of the calling of the disciples in this lakeside breakfast.

Where are you hearing echoes of Jesus' first call to you? Where is Christ continuing to call you?

This Sunday, let's meet at the lakeshore one last time to hear the Resurrected Christ.
See you Sunday at 9:30

Pastor Leanne

To everything turn, turn, turn....

Ecclesiastes 3 says there is a season for everything. Some of us look forward to the fall, others mourn the end of summer. Change is not easy but it happens.

You will notice a change or two in the order of worship beginning this past Sunday. After discussion with the Worship committee, which includes Tim, I have asked to move the order around a bit.

-first, our worship leader will be doing a bit more in the worship service—the announcements, call to worship/ gathering words/ opening prayer (depending on which is included in the order.), the offering, and the reading of scripture.

-second, we are moving the offering to after the sermon. I often use the offering not as a preparation for worship as some pastors do, but as a response. So that means the choir or bells anthem will be not within the offertory but standing alone before the sermon.

Right now, the worship team is willing to try and see if these changes work. We will continue to make adjustments as we go along in order to improve the flow of worship and create the space we can all meet Jesus, know Jesus better, and grow deeper in Jesus as we worship.

Thank you for your patience and joy in this process.

As the bell calls us to worship, let us prepare our hearts and minds to be present in Christ.

GATHERING WORDS

Norm Young

We have heard Christ call us by the lakeside, we have met Christ in the storm, and today we join Christ for breakfast and forgiveness at the shore. The call to follow Christ is a call to live differently. We are to live out the Kingdom of God amid a broken world. How often do we fail at this? Let's join Jesus and his disciples once more at the lake and hear the words of mercy.

Mission of the Month for August

Capital City Rescue Mission

Our JUMC Mission of the Month for August 2026 is Capital City Rescue Mission, a Christian organization which has been serving the community of Albany, NY since 1949 (77 years) with Homeless Services and Recovery Programs! The Mission has been privately supported since its inception and does not receive any city, state or federal funding. They strive to serve by offering compassion, God's love, and hope to the street-weary homeless who feel hopeless.

As a part of their Homeless Services, they provide food, clothing, and shelter, including a chapel, a health clinic and a learning center for men, women and their children.

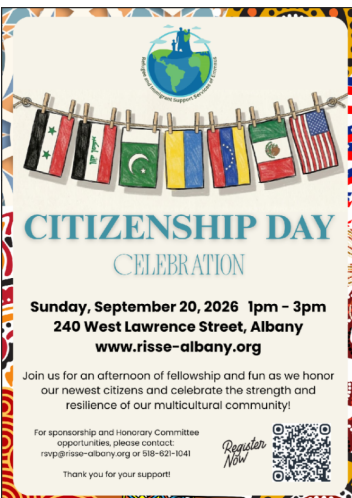

As a part of their holistic Recovery Programs, they offer a free nine-month Christian residential addiction recovery and rehabilitation program to help men looking for a fresh start to get back on their feet and become contributing members to society. To help support women and children, the fastest growing segment of homelessness, they offer free, year-long Christian transitional recovery programs, where women and children find safety and healing from trauma, abuse, and domestic violence.

Micah 6:8 There will be an opportunity, once again to watch 1946 the movie, this fall. It is a movie that teaches how one mistranslation of the bible was used by many in power to divide, much to the detriment of the LGBTQ+ community, and how much of it still persists today.
